

Whitehall Day

Originally constructed in 1928, The Whitehall Hotel, then an apartment building and later converted into a hotel in the 1950's, is perhaps best known for The Whitehall Place Lounge (once called The Whitehall Club). In 1995, Governor Jim Edgar, declared March 24th to be Whitehall Day based on the vast history and the many contributions that The Whitehall Hotel has made to the City of Chicago. In celebration of Whitehall Day, Fornetto Mei is proud to present a Special Three Course Prix-Fixe Dinner Menu priced at $19.95 dollars per person in honor of the year that Whitehall Day was declared.
